NOTES

- Our thoughts are with Aimee Barton whose father died last week. Aimee has returned home to her family, but we very much hope that we shall see her back at Harlaxton shortly. A cable of sympathy has been sent by the College.

- Congratulations to Mr. Brian B. Simmons on being accepted as a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries.

- Last day to drop or add a course is Friday, January 20, at 5.00 p.m.
After this date you can Withdraw from a course, after consultation with your Advisor, thus a W will be shown on your transcript.

- As you probably know, the Firemen's Strike is now officially over. However, please take great care, especially with cigarette ends, now that the special restrictions in force during the strike have been lifted.

- Text books are still on sale in the Library - please see Jan Beckett the Librarian.

- The Library coach this week will be visiting Leicester University Library.
  If you wish to go, please sign up on the sheet on the Library door.

NOTES

- We have received a letter from President Graves (at present displayed in the glass fronted notice board) thanking us all for our message of sympathy after the air crash in Evansville which took the lives of the members of the 'Aces' basketball team, their coach and supporters. Our thoughts are with the University and the bereaved families as they try to recover from this tragic loss.

- We have recently heard from the Bulgers, who are settling down happily to life back in the States. Their new address is:

  4481 South Buffalo Street
  Orchard Park
  New York 14127
  USA.

  for anyone who would like to drop them a line.

- The General Store is very proud to announce that it will hold a Toasted Sandwich Evening very soon. Watch out for further news of this innovation.

- Please note the following, and if they apply to you be warned:
  - Third floor residents, please try and be a little more considerate. There is TOO MUCH noise at night.
  - No one should be cooking upstairs for ANY reason. All cooking must be done in the student kitchen. We have had enough trouble with mice already!
  - Students who are ordering taxis as a joke are running a big risk. The cab companies may refuse to come to Harlaxton in the future if this continues.
  - Students who continue to have guests in their rooms after hours are going to be the cause of a NO GUEST police being put into effect.

- If any student has found a dustpan in their room, please return it to Mrs. Culpin. Many thanks.

- Meg Sellars and Linda Rudd proudly announce the formation of the illustrious HARLAXTON MANOR HOUSE AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY which will be presenting Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest in late March. Try outs for parts will be held in the middle of the week.

  In addition, much interest has been expressed in presenting a One-Act Play Festival in mid-March.

  Anyone interested in acting or helping with the production end please see Linda Rudd. All suggestions welcome!

- The Bulletin would be glad to know of happenings in the Manor. Please let Ann Clark know by Friday lunchtime if you have an announcement you would like published in the Bulletin.

Sunday, February 18 to Sunday, February 26	SPRING BREAK - We wish you all happy travels, and please do not forget to sign out in Myra's office.

NOTES

. It was with great sadness that we learned of the death of Mrs. Rob Bolam last Monday. Our thoughts are with Rob at this time, and a message of sympathy has been sent to him, also a wreath from the College. We hope to see Rob back with us very soon.

. IMPORTANT - All cast members and anyone interested in assisting with the staging of 'The Importance of Being Earnest' must attend the first reading on Monday evening at 7.30 p.m. in the Ante Room. The date for 'The Importance' has been set for MARCH 28.

ONE ACT PLAY FESTIVAL - the dates of March 20 and 22 have been set aside for one-act play presentations. Anyone interested in participating should see Linda Rudd. Auditions for voices for 'Sylvia Plath: A Dramatic Portrait' will be held Wednesday evening, Feb. 15 at 7.30 p.m. in the Ante-Room.

. We are sorry that the lift is still out of action (for safety reasons), and it does not look as though the necessary work will be completed much before the end of the term. We apologise for any inconvenience this causes.

. Welcome back to Reg Thornton on Monday next. Reg is now fully recovered from his recent illness, and we are pleased to see him back with us.

. We have been warned that the deliveries of heating oils will be more seriously affected as the tanker drivers' 'go slow' takes greater effect, or is extended. Please be very careful with your use of hot water. We shall have to try to conserve as much fuel as we can.

. Please be warned well in advance that accommodation for students beyond the end of the semester (April 21) will be very difficult due to the immediate influx of summer programme participants. Housing will only be available on a temporary overnight basis and by prior arrangement.

. Have a good holiday, and don't forget that classes start again on Monday, February 27.

NOTES

- Revised Library Hours. With effect from Sunday, 5 March, the Library will be open on Sunday mornings:
  Opening times on Sunday are now: 10.00 a.m. - 12.00 noon
  2.00 p.m. - 6.00 p.m.
  7.00 p.m. - 11.00 p.m.

- Attention all U of E students who plan on graduating in either May or in the summer, the Registrar at Evansville, Mr. Kenneth Jones, has asked that he be informed of any students at Harlaxton who plan to complete requirements for an associate or bachelor's degree. A special Application for Degree card is available in the Principal's Office for those who require one.

- Would all members of the Harlaxton community please check before going into classrooms during teaching hours to ensure that a class is not in session. There have been several instances where classes have been disturbed this semester and this does, of course, prove a great distraction to the professor and the students alike.

  Please be considerate!

- We very much regret that it has been necessary to increase the price of Coke to 12p a bottle.

- Don't forget to sign up for the Outward Bound field trip next week. There is a limit on the numbers who can join this trip, so get there first. More information will be posted on the Bulletin Board during the week.

- Any students who would like to be included on the return visit to Loughborough University of Technology on March 15 please see Dr. David Wrench.

- There are still one or two tickets left for a concert in Nottingham on Friday, March 10, featuring Paul Tortelier on cello. Anyone interested in coming along please see Dr. Peter Franklin. The tickets are 90p each.

- We all wish Dr. Rowlands a safe and pleasant week in Evansville. We look forward to seeing him back in the office on Tuesday, 14 March. BON VOYAGE!

NOTES

. We welcome to Harlaxton this week Jane Lampo who is the Harlaxton College Admissions Counsellor at William Jewell College. Jane will be staying at Harlaxton for about a week. We are delighted to see her here and hope she enjoys her stay.

. May we remind you that reference books, newspapers, periodicals and magazines must not be removed from the Library. In the last couple of weeks three paperback English dictionaries and Volume 5 of Encyclopaedia Britannica have all developed legs and walked away. This is causing great inconvenience and we'd like them back, please.

. Owners of various cars which have become part of the landscape are notified that the College will have to take steps to have them removed before the end of the semester, unless the owners do so themselves. Removal will be at the owner's expense.

. The back terrace door near the Red Room will be open from now on during the daylight hours for access to tennis courts, etc.

. A reminder that the last lecture in the Warmington Memorial Trust series is to be given by Dr. Ian Michael, CBE., BA, Ph.D., Deputy Director of the University of London Institute of Education, on Wednesday, March 15, in the Kesteven College New Hall at 7.30 p.m. The title of the lecture is, "Rates of Change". Anyone who would like a ticket for this lecture please see Ann Clark.

. Attached is the final examination schedule. If you have any problems regarding this schedule, please let us know as soon as possible.

. We welcome Dr. Rowlands back to Harlaxton on Monday afternoon. He will be back in the office on Tuesday, March 14.

2.00 p.m. - 4.00 p.m. — Rummage Sale on the front lawn. Anything you want to leave behind? Bring it along and see if you can sell it. The sale has been advertised in the Grantham Journal, so we should be inundated with customers! If the weather is wet, the sale will be held in the Dining Hall.

Sunday, April 23 — St. George's Day

11.30 a.m. — A group of architects will be visiting the Manor to look around the building and hear its history. There will be about 45 in number. They are going on to Lincoln after their visit to Harlaxton to see that splendid city.

NOTES

. We say goodbye to two members of the Harlaxton College staff at the end of this semester, Mrs. Dorothy Timm, Assistant Librarian, and Mr. John Arnold, Night Porter. We thank them both for their valued service to the College and wish them every happiness for the future.

. Congratulations to the Harlaxton College Basketball Team on beating the Lincoln Panthers who are at the top of the First Division of the Lincolnshire League. Our team has ended the season as undefeated champions.

. Students who are returning to the home campus in Evansville for the fall quarter are advised that the class schedule will not be available in time to be sent to us here at Harlaxton. Laura McDaniel has informed us that she will send the schedule and pre-registration forms to each student's home address around the first of May. Students should then return the completed forms to Laura who will reserve space in the desired classes for fall.

. Sadly the end of term is now here and to those of you who are leaving we wish every happiness and success in your future academic careers. We hope you will think of Harlaxton from time to time and perhaps we may even see you again sometime in the future. To those of you returning, have a good holiday and we look forward to seeing you on August 29.

BON VOYAGE

(A good way of keeping in touch with Harlaxton is to join the Harlaxton Society. There is no charge to students, and application forms are available in the Principal's Office.)
